

Water Weekly

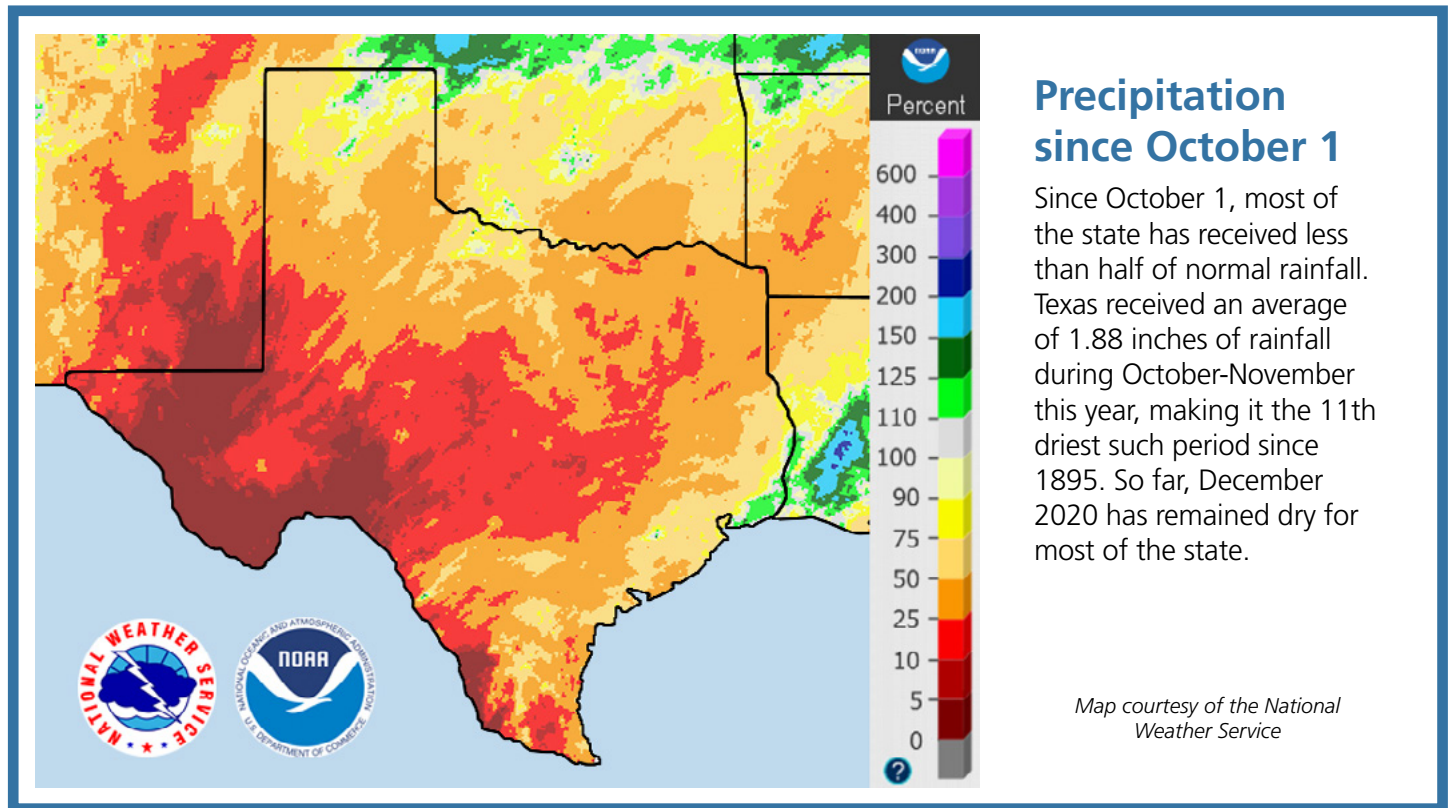

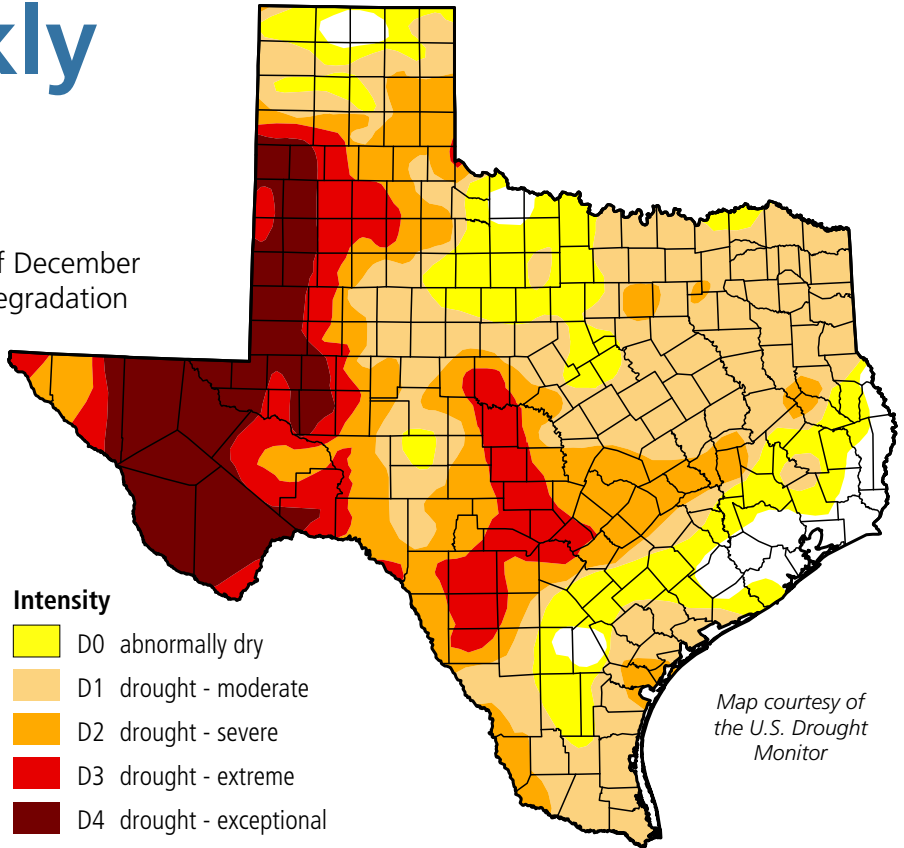

For the week of 12/14/20

Water conditions

The latest drought map for conditions as of December 8 shows areas of both improvement and degradation from last week, but the area of the state impacted by drought changed less than 1 percentage point. Seasonally cooler temperatures tend to slow drought degradation this time of year.

Drought conditions

- ◆ 79% now
- ◆ 79% a week ago
- ◆ 40% three months ago
- ◆ 35% a year ago
